GALLATIN RIVER COMMUNICATIONS L.L.C.
AGREEMENT TO FURNISH EMERGENCY
REPORTING TELEPHONE SERVICE

This Agreement is entered into on this day 7 of June, 2000, by and between Gallatin River Communications L.L.C., an Illinois corporation, with offices at Mr. Margaret Kikin ("Gallatin"), and Marshall County Emergency Telephone System Board with principal offices at 520 Sixth St. Jason

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Customer desires to have Gallatin provide Enhanced 9-1-1- Emergency Reporting Service ("E9-1-1- Service") in conjunction with the Enhanced 9-1-1 Public Safety Answering Points listed on Exhibit A (the "authorized Agencies"), which is attached hereto and incorporated herein; and

WHEREAS, Gallatin is willing to furnish, install and maintain said E9-1-1 service subject to the terms and conditions set forth below;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and conditions contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto mutually agree as follows:

1. Scope of Agreement

Gallatin shall provide and maintain to the Customer and each of the Authorized Agencies E9-1-1 service, on the terms and conditions more fully set forth hereinafter. Customer and the Authorized Agencies shall be connected to, and be part of, Customer's E9-1-1 Service.

The provision of E9-1-1 Service by Gallatin is in accordance with Gallatin's rules and regulations on file with the appropriate regulatory agency and is subject to the availability of manpower, equipment and facilities. Gallatin will use its best efforts to timely meet the in-service dates set forth on Schedule I, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein.

2. Provision of Service.

E9-1-1 Service is provided solely for the benefit of Customer; and the provision of such service shall not be interpreted, construed or regarded as being for the benefit of, or creating any obligation on the part of Gallatin toward, or any right of action on behalf of, any third person or legal entity.

11. Modification.

Any supplement to, or modification or waiver of, any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of both parties.

12. Section Headings.

All section headings contained herein are for convenience of reference only and are not intended to define or limit the scope of any provisions of this Agreement.

13. Cancellation.

It is understood that Gallatin's tariff on file with the Illinois Commerce Commission provides that in the event the Customer cancels this order prior to establishment of service, Gallatin shall be reimbursed by the Customer of costs incurred.

14. Waiver.

Failure of either party to enforce or insist upon compliance with any of the terms of conditions of this Agreement or waiver thereof, shall not constitute a general waiver or relinquishment of any such terms or conditions, but the same shall remain at all times in full force and effect.

15. This Agreement becomes effective when signed and unless sooner terminated, shall continue for an initial period of sixty (60) months from date of installation. At the end of the sixty (60) month period, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive periods of 60 months each, unless sooner terminated by mutual consent, or upon written notice by either party given no later than ninety (90) days prior to the end of the initial term or any extension thereof.

This Agreement, together with the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the E9-1-1 Service and no other agreement, offer, or representation of any party, which is not contained in the Agreement shall be binding or valid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the date and year first above written.

Agreement by written notice to the Customer. In any event, all amounts due Gallatin pursuant to this Agreement shall be immediately due and payable to Gallatin.

7. Assignment.

This Agreement shall not be assigned or transferred by Customer without the prior written consent of Gallatin.

8. Equipment.

Customer will provide all equipment at each PSAP as may be necessary to access the E9-1-1 System, including without limitation operator consoles, computer/data base, printers, modems and other associated equipment.

9. Right of Ingress and Egress.

Gallatin and its duly authorized agents and employees shall have the right of ingress and egress where said facilities are installed for the purpose of inspection, maintaining and repairing said facilities and for all other purposes necessary to the performance of this Agreement.

10. Notices.

All notices or other communications required hereunder shall be deemed to have been duly given when made in writing and delivered in person or by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, and addressed as follows:

To Customer:
E9-1-1 Coordinator
Marshall County E.T.S.B.

To Gallatin
Gallatin River Communications L.L.C.

With a copy to :
Paul Sunu

The address to which notices or communications may be given or made by either party may be changed by written notice given by such party to the other pursuant to this paragraph. For purposes of the Agreement, all notices or other communications required hereunder shall be deemed received on the date of delivery or in the case of mailing three (3) days after deposit in the mails.

Gallatin does not undertake to answer and forward E9-1-1 calls, but furnishes the use of its facilities to enable the Customer to respond to such calls with the Customer's personnel on Customer's premises.

Customer's E9-1-1 coordinator will act as coordinator for implementation and ongoing administration of E9-1-1 Service.

The rates charged for E9-1-1 Service do not contemplate and Gallatin does not undertake inspection or constant monitoring to discover errors, defects and malfunctions in the service. Customer shall have the responsibility of discovering all errors, defects and malfunctions, and assumes the duty of, and will make such tests as, in the judgment of Customer are required to determine whether the system is functioning properly for its use. Customer shall promptly notify Gallatin in the event the system is not functioning properly.

3. Network Charges.

Customer agrees to pay the rates and charges and abide by the terms and conditions contained in the cost quote sheet attached hereto as Exhibit A. Costs incurred by Gallatin for services requested by customer in addition to those specified in this Agreement, including without limitation, data base development, shall be charged, as incurred, to Customer.

Customer agrees that rates and charges for E9-1-1 Service are not subject to the franchise fees payable under Section VI of the Franchise Agreement, assumed by Gallatin, between Central Telephone company of Illinois and the city of Lacon dated march 24, 1977.

4. Compliance with Tariffs and Laws.

This Agreement is subject to all of the terms and conditions of Gallatin's tariffs, the rules and regulations of the Illinois Commerce Commission, and all federal and state laws.

5. Liability.

Gallatin, its officers, directors, employees and agents are not liable for damages in a civil action for injuries, death or loss to persons or property incurred by any person resulting from Gallatin, its officers, directors, employees, or agents participation in or acts or omissions in connection with such participation in the E9-1-1 System. Gallatin's sole liability with regard to the provision of service under this Agreement shall be governed by Gallatin's tariffs on file with the Illinois Commerce Commission.

6. Default.

If the Customer defaults in the payment of any amounts due hereunder or violates any other provision of this Agreement, and if such default or violation continues for thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Gallatin, Gallatin may terminate this
